

I am an INDIAN- Even though I am often treated as a NOT REQUIRED INDIAN

A Proud Indian

I may not have the right to vote, but I pay my taxes

I may not be living in the land, but my hearth lives within me

Like every other Indian, I was born in India and my body and spirit will rest there

Unlike you, I work in a far away land, away from my family, my soil, my religion

A guest in these foreign lands who lives by their hospitality

But does that mean that because I have travelled for work, I am no longer an Indian?

I am an Indian. I will be counted.

WHY DO YOU THINK I SHOULDN'T HAVE A RIGHT TO VOTE?

WHY DOES MY COUNSULATE NOT ENSURE MY HUMAN RIGHTS ARENT VOILATED?

WHY DOESN'T MY COUNSULATE ENSURE MY SAFETY IN FORGEIN LANDS? DON'T OTHER COUNCILS?

event of any violation of religious rights of an Indian citizen, ignorance should not be an excuse for the violation.
